WISCONSIN LAW JOURNAL ANNOUNCES ITS 2013 WOMEN IN THE LAW

MILWAUKEE - The Wisconsin Law Journal has named 27 outstanding female attorneys and judges as 2013 Women in the Law.

The honorees have demonstrated exceptional leadership, vision and expertise in Wisconsin's legal community.

Since 2003, Wisconsin Law Journal has recognized Women in the Law honorees based on a wide variety of criteria, including: those who have achieved excellence in their respective fields and have influenced other women to pursue legal careers; those who have opened doors for women lawyers in job settings that historically were closed to women; and those who have advanced opportunities for women within a practice area or segment of the profession.

This year's honorees will be recognized at an awards ceremony and dinner June 25 at The Pfister Hotel in Milwaukee. They also will be profiled in a special awards magazine put out by the Wisconsin Law Journal. The magazine debuts at the awards event, and will go out to Wisconsin Law Journal subscribers shortly thereafter.

For information about the event or the awards, please contact Sarah McQuin, Special Projects Editor, at 414-225-1814 or sarah.mcquin@wislawjournal.com.
